MONROE, LOUISIANA

School . . .

T. O. BROWN
Principal 1899-1908
Superintendent 1908-1943

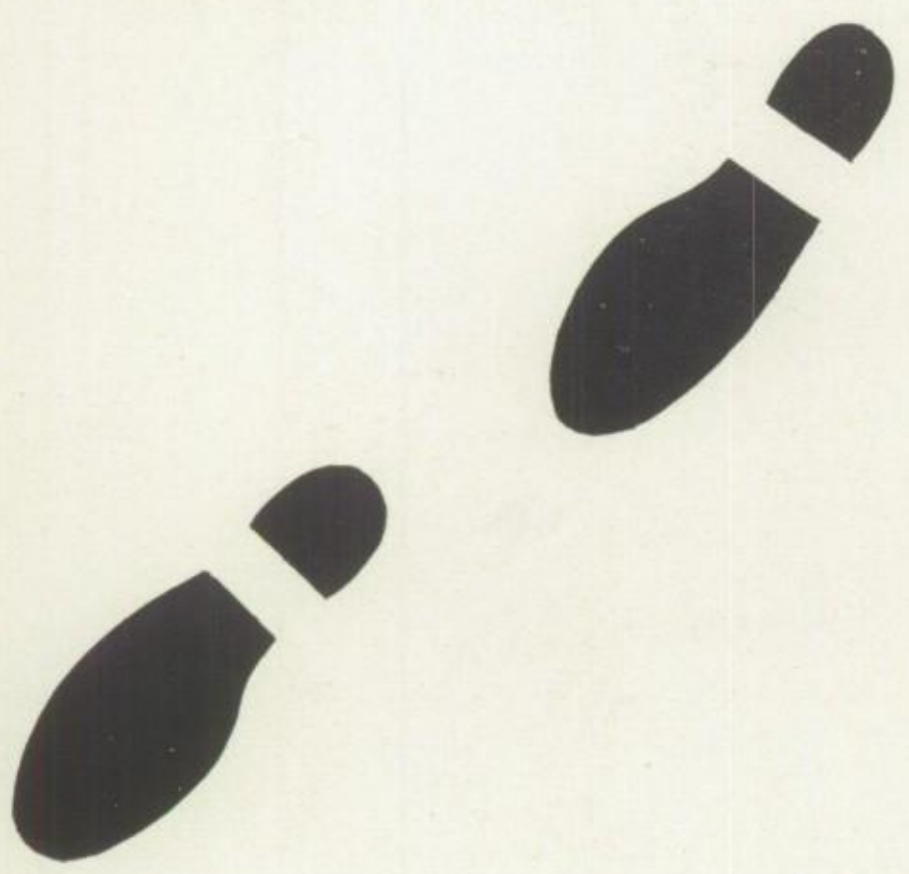

JACK HAYES
Principal 1908-1949

In October, 1894, the Ouachita Parish School Board authorized the construction of a school building on a section of land originally donated by Don Juan Filhiol. This building, which still stands as the central portion of the Ouachita Parish Grammar School building, housed the original Ouachita Parish High School. For the first five years of its existence, the school was under the direction of H. E. Chambliss, 1894-1896, and H. H. Byrd, 1896-1899.

The seed of education planted in 1894 continued to grow in ever increasing capacity and efficiency under the administration of two great educators, T. O. Brown, principal, 1899-1908; superintendent, 1908-1943, and Jack Hayes, principal 1908-1949.

Since the retirement of Mr. Hayes and the death of Mr. Brown, Ouachita has continued to grow under the capable leadership of Superintendent W. W. Ward and Principal I. C. Strickland. When the school was divided in 1953 and West Monroe High School was opened, Ouachita had grown from its original enrollment of 20 students and six teachers to 1901 students and 63 teachers, to teach the 76 units of work offered in the curriculum.

... in an era of Growth and Expansion

September, 1958, will find O.P.H.S. enjoying a brand new plant made available to us through the efforts of the Ouachita Parish School Board, Mr. Ward, Mr. Strickland, and the people of Ouachita Parish.

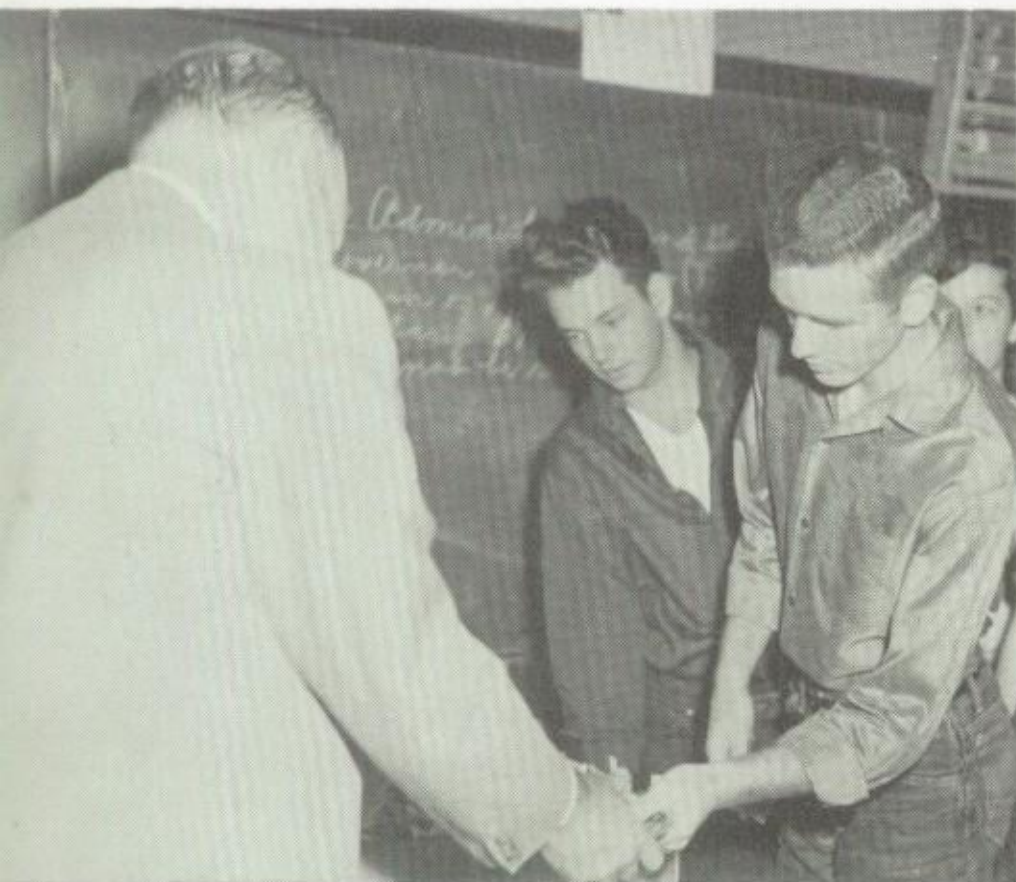

Included in the new plant will be a modern building with the very latest classroom, auditorium, and gymnasium equipment. The advantages offered by an adequate stadium and lighted football field will be new to O.P.H.S. students. Facilities for track and baseball will also be provided.

Tomorrow, a new era will have begun for Ouachita Parish High School.

... with a great Heritage

in student achievement

Since space is limited, perhaps the best picture of the achievements of Ouachita and her students can be given through actual headlines from past issues of school and city newspapers.

... and is dedicated to those students of yester years

Through the years hundreds of Ouachita alumni have taken their places in various fields of leadership in service to our society.

Though outstanding in their respective fields, the alumni pictured here were chosen, not as individuals, but as representatives of the many Ouachita graduates who have gone on to achieve success in life. Because we are limited by lack of space, we have merely skimmed the surface of professions and occupations in which our alumni are engaged.

Since their loyal and unfailing support has played such an important part in the development of our school, it is with a great deal of pleasure that the Staff dedicates the 1958 ROARER to that great body of loyal alumni now scattered all over the world.

The 1958 Football Schedule

COACH BOB ELLEN

The Ouachita Lions, under Head Coach Bob Ellen, finished their 1957 football season with a 1-8 record. Although light and comparatively inexperienced, the team provided game opposition for heavier and more experienced teams.

Ouachita opened the season with a 13-6 loss to Homer, and lost their next two games to Minden 52-20, and to Ruston 47-27, before they won their lone game over Pineville 28-7.

Although the Lions played one of their best games of the year, they were edged by Fair Park of Shreveport by a score of 20-18.

West Monroe rebounded from their 40-0 loss to the Lions the previous year and thumped them 27-0. The Lions were outclassed in their next two games as they lost to Byrd of Shreveport 41-0, and to Haynesville 27-0. The season ended with a 20-6 loss to Neville.

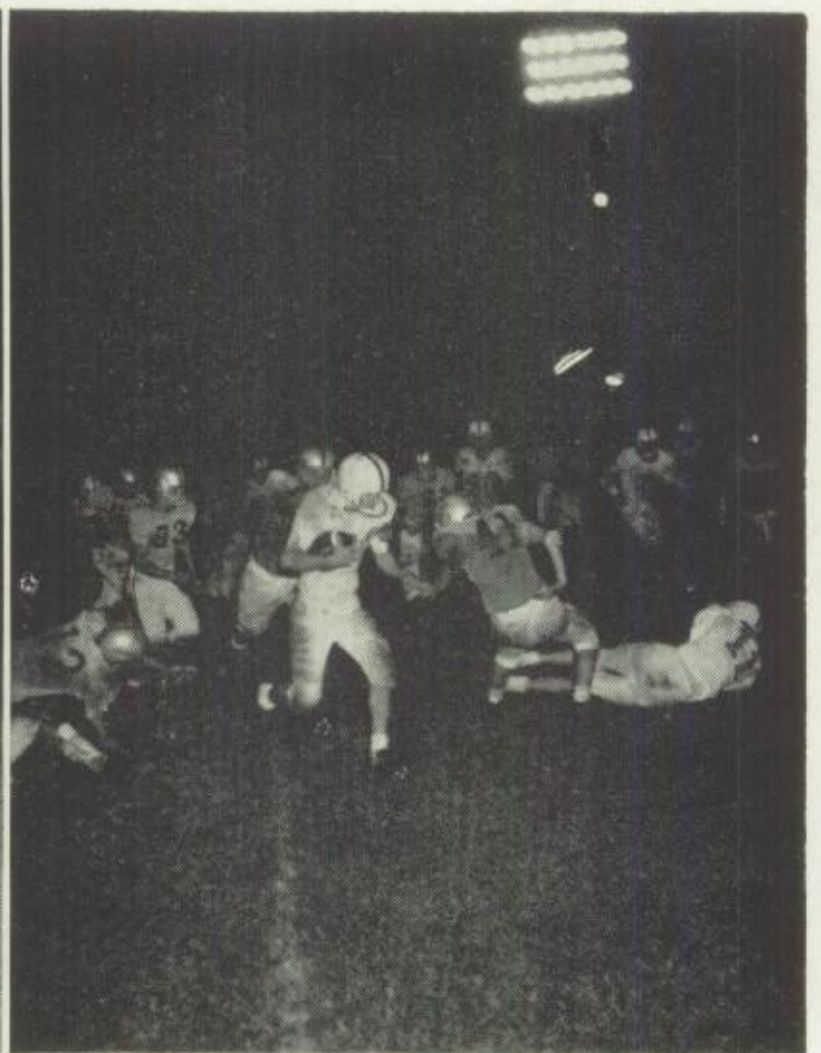

The Lions had several outstanding players in end Billy Roach; centers, R. W. Kimball and Tommy Crowe; Hulon Carkeet and David Kirtley; guards; quarterback Rex Carter; halfbacks Eddie McGoven and John Housley; and fullback Woody Mahoney.

FIRST ROW: Barker, Shipp, Knickerbocher, Mahoney, Bates, Perry, Carey Prewitt, Cromwell, Fletcher, Carkeet. Cheerleaders Keep Spirits High

Always faithful in attending ball games, pep meetings and other gatherings, the Ouachita cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Joy Johnson, do a good job of keeping up school spirit.

Each summer the cheerleaders attend a summer camp held on the S.M.U. campus in Dallas, Texas. Here they are judged according to how they perform. Last summer the OPHS girls were rated first.

In the spring each class nominates four students. From this group a committee composed of faculty members and students choose eight students to represent the school the following year.

COACH HERBERT HOLLIMAN

The Ouachita Parish High School boys' basketball team, under Coach Herbert Holliman, enjoyed its best season in several years.

The boys had an overall season record of 24 wins and 12 losses, for a .667 percentage.

The Lions, with a 5-1 conference record, won the North District AAA championship by beating Fair Park of Shreveport twice, Byrd of Shreveport twice, and splitting two games with West Monroe.

During the regular season the Lions entered several tournaments, but failed to win one.

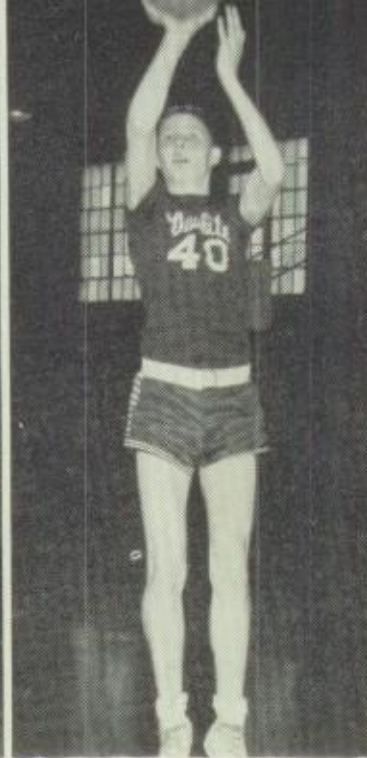

In their own tournament they reached the finals but lost to Neville. Other tournaments which Ouachita entered were West Monroe, and Bastrop.

The Lions were dropped from the state AAA playoffs when they lost to DeLasalle of New Orleans in a bi-district game by a score of 73-49.

The Lionettes undertook several projects to help pay for the football programs. Among these was selling ads and fruitcakes for the Civitan Club during the year. An annual project of the Lionettes is working on a Homecoming float for the Queen and her maids.

The football season is climaxed by a banquet sponsored by the Lionettes in honor of the football team. At this banquet awards are given to outstanding players.

Student Council

The Ouachita Parish High School Student Council, now in its fourth year, is under the sponsorship of Miss Carrie Dee Drew, Mrs. Cynthia Leigh, and Mr. E. M. Wooten.

The Student Council has as its main objectives the teaching of good citizenship and the fostering of better relations between faculty and students.

Each summer, officers for the next year go to a four-day workshop in Natchitoches to prepare themselves for their duties.

Besides attending the workshop, delegates also go to the state convention, where state officers are elected for the coming year.

The Ouachita Student Council meets bi-weekly on Wednesday mornings, to discuss routine business.

Among outstanding projects of the group have been the procuring of a school seal, serving as ushers at open house, and conducting school elections.

The Ouachita band, under the direction of B. Mack Hearne, takes part in many school and community activities.

During football season the marching band provides colorful music at pep meetings, football games, and for half-time shows.

Among thirteen bands participating, the Ouachita band won third prize of $75.00 in Monroe's Christmas parade marching contest in December. The band also marches in the yearly Homecoming parade and participates in other twin city and school parades.

An important event in the spring is the State Music Festival, and again this year, Ouachita's Band made a high rating.

Other activities of the band are presenting concerts, attending the annual Louisiana State Fair, and attending out of town music clinics. Each year is climaxed with a three-day spring trip.

Mixed Ensemble

Mixed ensemble entertains queen and court at Homecoming Assembly.

The music program of Ouachita would not be complete without the ensembles.

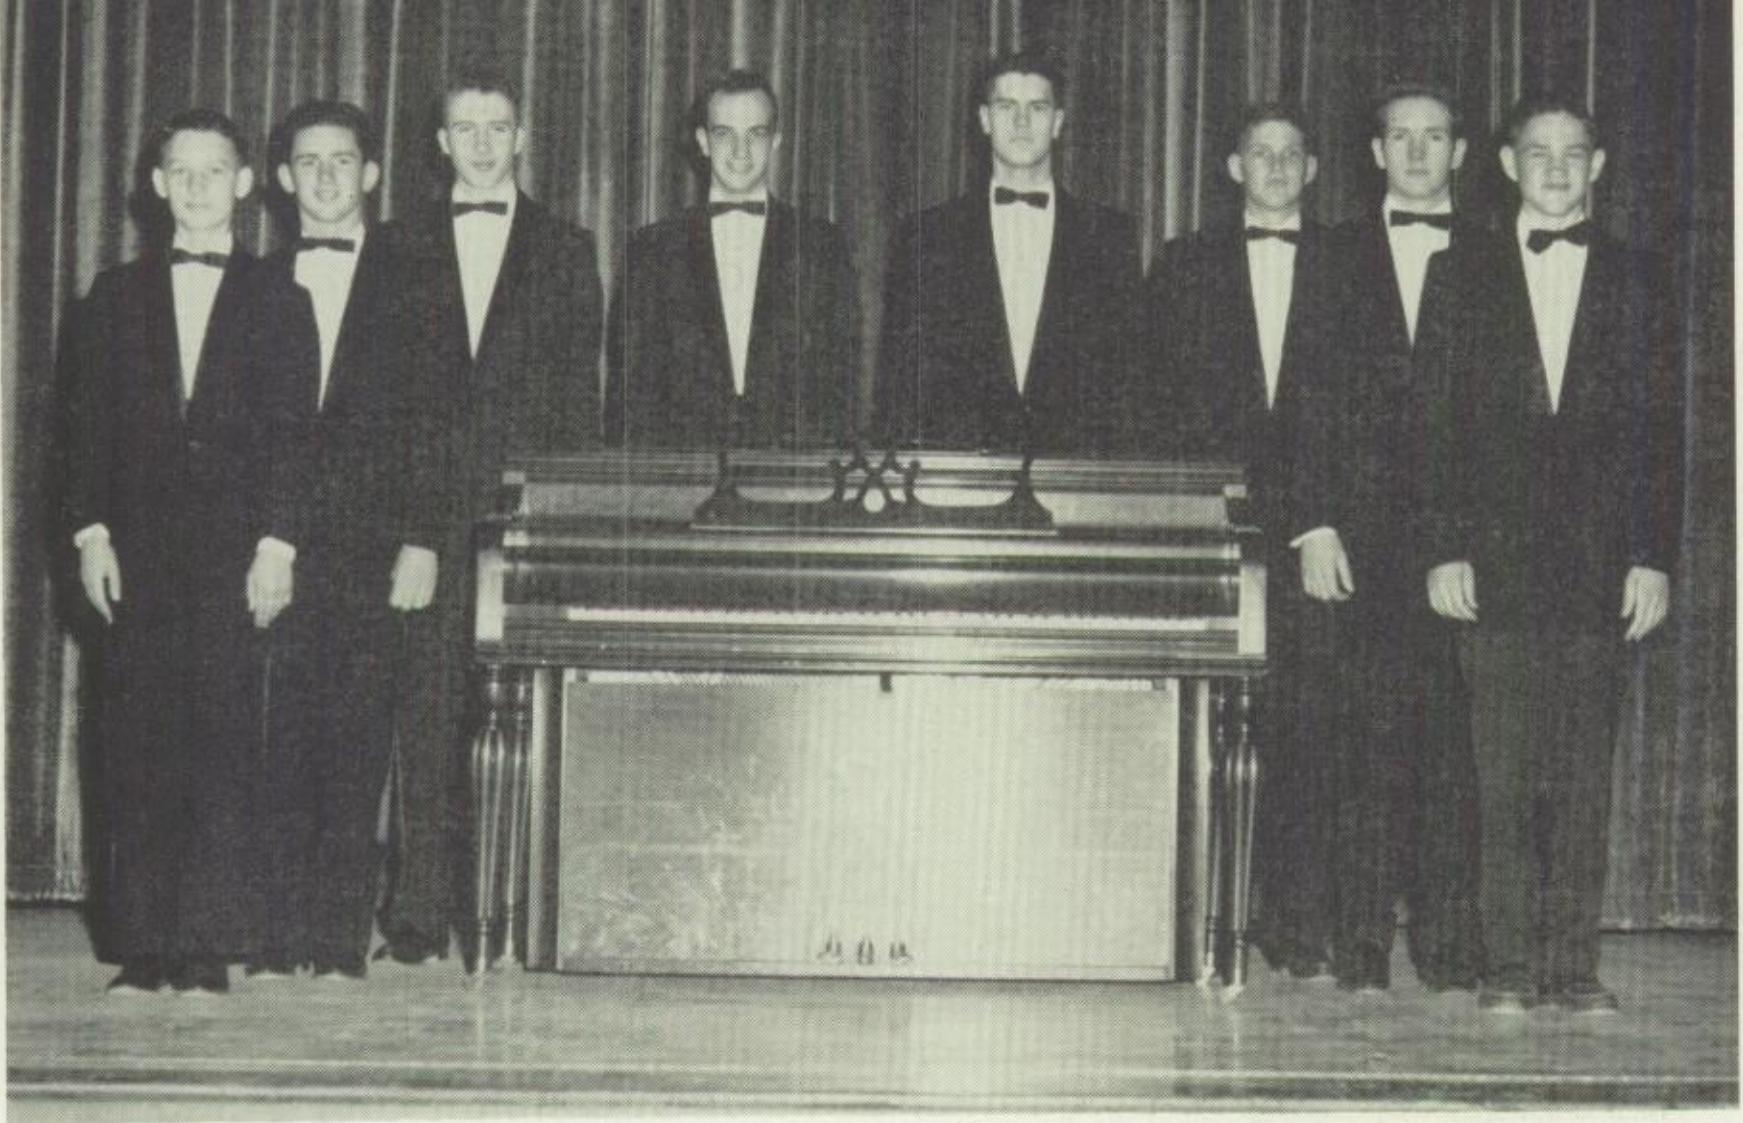

These versatile groups, composed of selected members of the choir, participated in many and varied programs during the year of '58. Making a guest appearance on the Jeffersonian Amateur show, and singing for Open House, School Hi-Lites, Rotary Club, and other civic groups are some of the entertainment the ensembles provided.

The ensemble received a superior plus rating when they attended the Solo and Ensemble Festival at Ruston. The Boys' and Girls' Ensemble and three of the soloists received ratings of superior.

Students selected to sing in the all-state chorus were: Sybil Alford, Mary Coon, Clarice Brown, James Upshaw, Don Mears, Tommy Anderson, John Talley, and William Haley.

Miss Cormier Directs Choir at school performance.

Under the direction of Miss Ramona Cormier, the Ouachita Choir completed another successful year.

On the agenda for the group of 52 were the regular Christmas and spring concerts, and trips to Tioga, Shreveport and Sterlington.

For the first time in ten years the choir attended the music festival in Baton Rouge, where members visited the Capitol and other places of interest.

In addition to presenting concerts, the choir found time for local performances at Open House, on School Hi-Lites, and for civic clubs. They also opened the annual TV March of Dimes auction with "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Miscellaneous Music

Because the Music Department of Ouachita does not exclude those students who are not the best singers or instrumentalists, everyone who likes music may find a place.

For those who like to sing, there is the mixed chorus and for the girls there is the girls' chorus. These choruses sing with the Choir at the Christmas assembly, and also attend the Music Festival in Ruston. Later in the year these students are given the chance to try out for the choir.

In the instrumental group there are the "B" and "C" bands. These students are also trained for better work in the "A" band.

Students who work in the school office and in the counseling office do so voluntarily and receive no credit.

Some of the jobs which keep the girls in the office busy are distributing mail, answering the telephone, running errands for the staff, showing new students around school, and checking students out of school.

Miss Josephine McCranie, guidance counselor, has charge of the girls in the counseling office. These girls are usually selected upon the recommendation of teachers.

They assist Miss McCranie by grading aptitude tests which are given to students each year, filing, typing, making posters, and keeping a bulletin board posted.

Pelican States

At the end of their Junior year, delegates, elected by their classmates and approved by the faculty, attend Pelican State at Louisiana State University for a nine-day session.

Pelican State, sponsored by the American Legion, acquaints the delegates with the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of American citizenship, along with the function of State government.

At the end of the nine-day session, the delegates cast their votes for state officers on voting machines.

The representatives are also acquainted with the making of city, and parish projects, the election and duties of city, parish, and State officials, and with the holding of conventions.

The representatives report that Pelican State is not all work, for recreational facilities are provided by the university.

LEADERSHIP: Doyle Dean, Jeanette Holdeman, Jean Easom.

GIRLS: Annette Vought, Barbara Lowry, Sandy Edwards, Gail Fleming.
BOYS: Bennie Farrar, Buddy Norred, Doyle Dean, Vernon Bagwell.

Leadership Conference

Each year students who are outstanding in certain departments are chosen by their department heads to attend a Leadership Conference in Baton Rouge at Louisiana State University.

While there, representatives attend classes in their special fields, designed to assist in teaching them more about their departments.

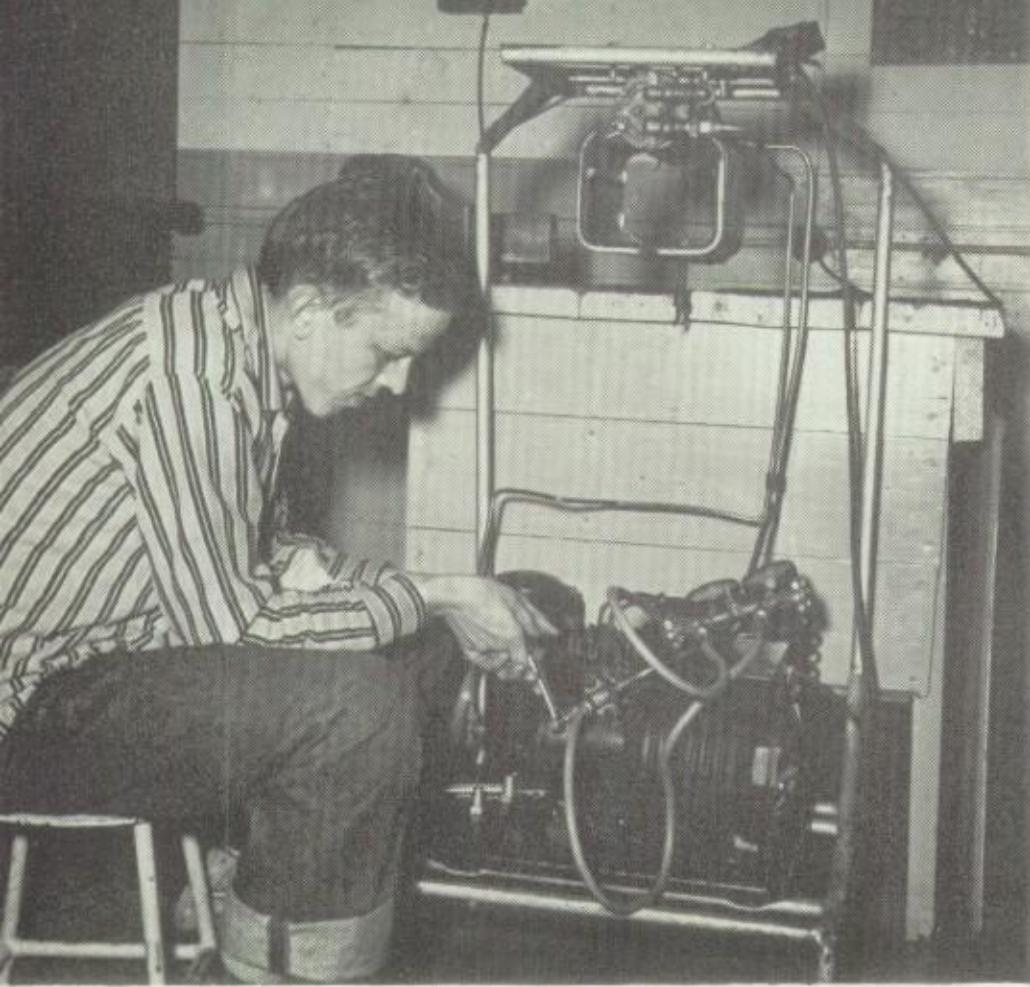

Leadership is not all work. Besides swimming in the afternoon, parties, and stunt nights, other informal gatherings are enjoyed by the delegates. Activities are climaxed by a banquet the night before the conference ends.

TRADE SCHOOL

GEORGE WALKER, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning

Under the direction of S. W. Jackson, the Ouachita Valley Vocational School, supported by the state, cooperates with various high schools in this area enabling students to receive vocational training in different skills.

The students receive special training in automobile mechanics, radio and television operation, aircraft engineering, and electricity, which prepare them for jobs as electricians, technicians, and engineers; mechanical drawing, which gives training to those who plan to be draftsmen or civil engineers; and practical nursing, a course offered to girls who are interested in a nursing career.

Ouachita students are required to attend trade school for three straight hours every day, and are able to complete their training in three years.
